English: Tsunami Girl

Skill: Quote, effect, So What (symbolism) | Warm-up 5, drill 10, paper 20 min

Writing target

- Move from naming a technique to explaining what it does and why the writer chose it. Aim for six to eight linked sentences.
- Link words: this suggests that / this makes the reader feel / which implies / by choosing …, the writer / symbolises / as a result

How to think about symbolism

- A symbol is a concrete thing (object, image, place, character, even the form of the book) that stands for a bigger idea.
- Spot it: it appears more than once, or the writer lingers on it. Think about the manga hero Yuki creates, the sea, or an object that returns. Choose from your own copy.
- Ladder: Label -> Effect -> So What.
- The book mixes prose and manga. Ask why the writer switches at this moment.

Part 1: Reading log (3 min)

In two or three lines, what has happened in the chapters you have read so far?

Part 2: Choose and plan (5 min)

Step	Your notes
My symbol, and where it appears
What it literally is
Short quote (8 words or fewer) and page
Two ideas it could stand for
Which fits best, and why

Part 3: One paragraph (12 min)

Question: How does the writer use your chosen symbol to help us understand Yuki's feelings or situation?

Frame: The writer uses ___ (quote). This makes the reader feel or think ___. This suggests that ___ because ___. By choosing this, the writer shows ___.

Self-check: [ ] Quote exact and short [ ] Named an effect on the reader [ ] So What goes beyond the plot [ ] Gave a reason with because

Mark your writing: circle the level you reached.

Level	What it looks like
Level 1	Quote and plot only.
Level 2	Effect on the reader is named.
Level 3	Effect and So What, with a reason, in your own words.

Oral check (parent): “What did the writer want us to understand by choosing that?”
